

Theremidi Orchestra (verb) was founded after a three-day theremin and theremidi physical interface workshop at Ljubljana Digital Media Lab - Ljudmila in May 2011 under the comradeship of Cirkulacija 2's Borut Savski, who later also joined the line-up. The fascination for the electromagnetic sound waves grew into exploring and producing sounds with the help of DIY gadgets, antennas, conductive ink, umbrellas, wire ducklings, air tubes, flowers, and scrap metal. The live acts – indoors and outdoors – are more similar to an experiment-seeking interventions, ongoing workshops or performances rather than conventional musical concerts. The hands-on electro noise ensemble exists in the present continuous, but refers also to the history of electronic music, while the number of members varies from eight to ten, sometimes even twelve. The Theremidi Orchestra has its very own Female Section.

Theremidi Orchestra are/were Simon Bergoč, Tina Dolinšek, Luka Frelih, Ida Hiršenfelder, Dare Pejić, Isac Petruzzi, Borut Savski, Tilen Sepič, Ian Soroka, Saša Spačal, Robertina Šebjanič, Matic Urbanija, Dušan Zidar.

Theremidi Orchestra (glag.) so bili ustanovljeni po zaključku tridnevne delavnice izdelovanja termin in theremidi fizičnih vmesnikov na Ljudmili - Ljubljana Digital Media Lab v maju 2011, ki je potekala pod tovorištvom Boruta Šavskega, člana Cirkulacije 2, in kasneje pridruženega člana zasedbe. Očaranost nad elektromagnetnimi zvočnimi valovi je prerasla v raziskovanje in izdelovanje zvokov s pomočjo naredisam/a pripomočkov, anten, prevodnega črnila, dežnikov, žičnatih račk, zračnih cevi, cvetic in starega želeta. Nastopi v živo, pod streho in na prostem, so bolj podobni eksperimentalnim intervencijam, nadaljevalni delavnici ali predstavam, kot konvencionalnim glasbenim koncertom. Praktični in hrupni elektro-ansambel obstaja v večnem sedanjiku, čeprav se tudi naslanja na zgodovino elektronske godbe, medtem ko število članov niha med osem in deset, včasih tudi dvanajst. Theremidi Orchestra ima tudi čisto svojo žensko sekcijo.
